PROGRESSIVE REPUBLICANS SWEEP COUNTY

OVERWHELMING VICTORY FOR STATE CANDIDATES; LOCAL NOMINEES AHEAD

Incomplete Returns Indicate Stewart Will Have From 1,500 to 2,000 Majority Over Parks; Machine Completely Routed; Extremely Heavy Vote in City, With Light Ballot in Country Districts; Progressive Democrats Win

Progressive Republicanism won a magnificent victory at the primaries in El Paso county yesterday. Complete returns from 16 of the 62 precincts, and unofficial reports on separate candidates from other precincts, indicate that the leading-state Progressives won by a handsome majority, while the Progressive Republicans more than broke even with the machine nominees for county offices. Stewart, for governor, ran ahead of his ticket. His majority over Parks from the 16 precincts heard from is 478, and his majority in the entire county is estimated between 1,500 and 2,000. The vote in the 16 precincts stands: Stewart, 829; Parks, 351. Vincent has a safe lead over Dawson, while Ben Griffith is ahead of Gobin, and Dodge, for congressman, leading the six candidates, has a comfortable plurality over Kinsley. Stark is close behind Kinsley. It looks as though Campbell, Republican, will win out in this county over Rees, Progressive Republican, for supreme judge, but Davenport, Progressive Republican for lieutenant-governor, is nearly 200 ahead of Elliott, standpat candidate. The Progressives also are in the lead for state auditor and treasurer. Van Buskirk, for congressman from the Second district, is about 100 ahead of Ballreich, standpat, so that the antimachine nominees are in the lead for all but two offices, and for one of these, supreme judge, Campbell is a resident of Colorado Springs, while his Progressive opponent lives in Denver.

For district attorney, Strachan and Carpenter are running a neck-and-neck race, with Broughton of Chippie Creek a poor third. The petition candidates for district judge, Little, Sheaffer and Morris, have several hundred votes more than the three assembly nominees, Rowe, Moore and Shaw. W. C. Robinson, Progressive, for state senator, has a lead over J. R. Robinson, standpat, while the six candidates for the three state representative jobs are pretty well mixed up. Wulff, standpat, is high men so far, with George Progressive a close second, and Dunbar, standpat, third. Kinsley and Stubbs, standpat, have a lead for county judge and clerk, respectively, but Birdsell, petition candidate for sheriff,

VOICE IN STATE IS ABOUT A THIRD OF REGISTRATION

Returns So Incomplete That Strength of Candidates Cannot Be Estimated. Stewart and Parks Close

DENVER, Sept. 10.—Returns from the first state primary in Colorado at a late hour tonight suggest that the results could be the best cast with any certainty. A much estimated that only a third of the registered voters in the state voted and only a fifth of those who registered voted in the primary. The bulk of the vote was in the city, where the vote was the only one to participate in the primary. The Progressive party, including the Democratic party, and the late closing vote in the city for the Progressive party.

Incomplete returns from a national primary in the city of Denver, Colorado, show that Governor John F. Stewart, Progressive, is in the lead, while the Republican side Clifford C. Parks, regular, and Philip H. Stewart, Progressive, appear to be having a close race.

Griffith's Lead Looks Safe.

Benjamin Griffith, Progressive, Republican candidate for attorney general, appears to have the safest lead of any candidate for nomination on a Republican ticket.

For justice of the supreme court, John R. Dixon, Democrat, and John Campbell, Republican, lead their opponents.

The ballots counted so far indicate

ROOSEVELT ELATED OVER MAINE RESULT

Declares Primary Election Is a Great Victory for Progressives

TACOMA, Wash., Sept. 10.—Col. Theodore Roosevelt, who completed his journey across the continent today when he crossed the Cascade mountains and arrived at Puget Sound, expressed elation tonight when he read the final returns from the Maine election. He said it was a victory for the Progressives.

"We named for governor of Maine the man the Progressives wanted," the colonel declared. "He wrote to me that he hoped we would not make a fight against him; that he was for me and that he would come out for me after the election. I have just received word that he carried the state, and that in accordance with his promise he had come out for the Progressive national ticket."

Colonel Roosevelt delivered an address in the stadium here tonight. He referred to conditions in New Jersey, saying that "the Democratic party there is struggling apparently to get rid of one boss, Mr. Smith, and apparently has gone to bed with another, Mr. Nugent."

"Everybody's Roosevelt Now."

The colonel, who spent most of the day in Seattle, before coming to Tacoma, was followed through the streets there by a hundred blue jackets from the battleship Oregon, on shore leave. After making a speech to the crowd, he turned to the colonel's hotel. Colonel Roosevelt shook hands all around and the packies trooped out. Nothing more was seen of them until the colonel had begun his speech at the Progressive state convention, when sounds of tumult were heard through the closed doors. The Oregon detachment was demanding admittance, which the police refused. Colonel Roosevelt again went to the rescue and directed that they be let in. They started to sing and the crowd gathered to the street and then a riot broke out. The colonel said that in every state where there had been a direct primary the Progressive vote of the Republican party had won, and wherever we won we definitely and finally eliminated the political boss from public life.

JOHNSON GIVEN GREAT RECEPTION IN ILLINOIS

CHICAGO, Sept. 10.—Human interest on a hot day centers more easily on a horse race than on politics. Governor Johnson decided today at the St. Charles fair, where the biggest Progressive meeting of his one day's Illinois trip was held, so he delayed starting his address until after the 2:30 trot had been finished. Soon after the word "Go" was given Governor Johnson, amid applause, said:

"My friends, I would like to describe to you the human race, but I can't complete with a horse race. Let us see the last trot." Then he faced the horses and saw the last trot off.

A horse with the name of Jolly was a long time getting started and a black horse kept showing first today in the race. The race finished with Jolly in the lead and the crowd shouted "Jolly, jolly."

He drove back and on this year remarked the governor.

Governor Johnson's itinerary today carried him through the scenes of the famous Lincoln-Douglas debates. His address dealt chiefly with social and industrial questions with an occasional reference to initiative, referendum and recall, and the direct election of senators. Cheering crowds greeted him in every city he visited.

At Chicago the governor compared the virtues of the Progressive party to the man who put his finger in a lion's paw to prove it would not hurt.

Women to Make Up Republican Ticket

BOULDER, Colo., Sept. 10.—A Republican ticket made up entirely of women candidates will be placed in the field in Idaho this fall against the regular Republican and Progressive tickets. The women members of the Republican party in Idaho announced today that they had been disgusted with the result of all efforts, including judges and advocates, to bring women into the political arena.

A platform was adopted which gave the initiative and referendum, and the result of all efforts, including judges and advocates, to bring women into the political arena.

Arizona Vote Light

PHOENIX, Ariz., Sept. 10.—Arizona's statewide primary for the selection of three candidates for president and one for congress, brought out a light vote. In Maricopa county, in which Phoenix is situated, only 10 per cent of the registered vote was cast. There were no contests for the three party congressional nomination, the successful candidates being Robert S. Fisher, Progressive, Thomas Campbell, Republican, and Carl Hayden, Independent, Democrat.

NOW 5 PARTIES IN MAINE FIGHT

THE PROGRESSIVES AND STANDPATTERS SPLIT

Bull Moosers Will Circulate Petitions to Nominate Roosevelt Electors

PORTLAND, Me., Sept. 10.—Maine covered from the state election yesterday, in which the Republicans were victorious, to find itself facing another political contest with five parties instead of four in the race for the six presidential electoral votes.

The Progressive party, whose leaders had joined with the Republicans in yesterday's election, came into being today after the announcement of the election of William F. Holmes for governor. The party, which had been a part of the Republican party, is now a separate party.

Interest today centered in the action of the Progressive leaders. The Republicans and Democrats already have nominated their presidential electors. The Progressives, Prohibitionists and Socialists will make their nomination of electors by petition. These parties began to be elevated today.

William P. Gardner, in announcing the position of the Progressives today, said:

Position of Progressives.

"The Progressive party as a party does not take credit for the result of yesterday's election. Although the Progressive element in the Republican party won the fight for Holmes, it did this in order to carry out the agreement with the Republican leaders and also because the Progressives had taken part in the Republican primaries and felt bound to abide by the verdict then rendered."

"The Progressive party of Maine came into existence for the first time this morning. From now on it will seek election for Roosevelt presidential electors in Maine."

Chairman J. P. Wilson of the Democratic state committee, and the results of yesterday were encouraging. He said the split in the Republican party meant the election of the Democratic presidential electors.

The Republican electors were reluctant about the future. Chairman Phillips of the state committee, refused to make known his plans for the presidential campaign.

WASHINGTON PROGRESSIVES NOMINATED STATE TICKET

SEATTLE, Wash., Sept. 10.—The Progressive convention today nominated a state ticket headed by Robert T. Hodge of Seattle for the governorship, and named the following candidates for congress:

At large J. A. Kinsley, Everett, and J. W. Dixon, Bellingham.

First district, Stephen MacFarland, Tacoma.

Third district, J. M. Johnson, Spokane.

The nominees were selected at the primary held last Saturday. Under the state law, it was necessary for a state convention to certify the names to the secretary of state.

A platform was adopted which gave the initiative and referendum, and the result of all efforts, including judges and advocates, to bring women into the political arena.

MEXICANS CROSS U. S. LINE SEEKING REBELS

Entrain at El Paso for Nogales—Salazar Reported Driven Back From Border

WASHINGTON, Sept. 10.—Reports given to move 1,200 Mexican troops through United States territory to attack the Mexican rebels in the state of Sonora, and the reported refusal and retreat from the border of the rebel leader, General Salazar, and his men, combined today to bring satisfaction to government officials here. Officials here are glad the scene of hostilities apparently is being removed from the border. With a considerable force of federals already carrying on operations in Sonora, it is expected that the large additional force will be sufficient to subdue the movement or force them further south.

The Mexican troops will entrain at El Paso for Nogales, Ariz. Their arms and ammunition will be shipped by rail.

The rebels operating behind the border are not yet identified as any particular command, but it is considered a possibility that officers here that they could be led by the rebel commander, Salazar, who is reported to have been driven back from the border.

DOUGLAS, Ariz., Sept. 10.—In a medley of multicolored skies on one side of the international border here soon will be stationed negro troops of the United States army and on the other side Mexican federal troops composed of semicivilized Yaqui Indians. This will bring about a peculiar military situation, probably unprecedented on the Mexican-United States frontier. With the arrival here of the Ninth negro cavalry, troops of the Fourth cavalry stationed along the border at this point will move farther west into the desert country beyond Nogales, Ariz.

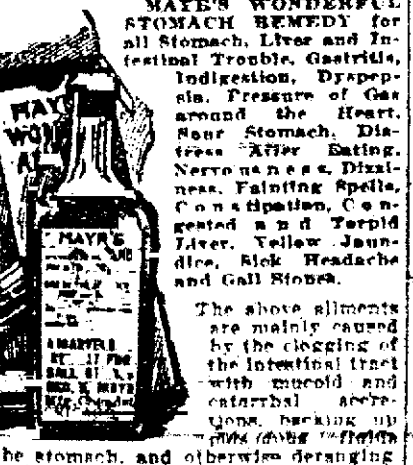

FORT RILEY, Kan., Sept. 10.—The Thirteenth cavalry will leave for the border Saturday morning, according to orders issued here late this afternoon. Officers are sending their families to relatives in anticipation of a long stay on the border.

DOUGLAS, Ariz., Sept. 10.—Telegraphic communication with Nacozari, the mining center south of this place, was cut some time this afternoon, and tonight rebels burned railway bridges a few miles south of Agua Prieta, Sonora, opposite this town. The fire could be seen from Douglas. If an attack is anticipated it probably will be made on Agua Prieta, which is guarded by only 300 federal soldiers. Nacozari is protected by more than 500 federals and many Americans in arms. The American population of Nacozari numbers about 100.

PROGRESSIVES WILL CARRY NEW MEXICO

Leaders in New State Regard Victory Certain at Fall Election

ALBUQUERQUE, N. M., Sept. 10.—Attended by a full delegation from every county in the state, making a convention of more than 300 delegates, the Progressive party of New Mexico today held its first nominating convention at which famous band leaders, bull moose banners and frequent cheers for Roosevelt were the chief features.

The convention was called to order this afternoon by former Gov. Miguel A. Otero, chairman of the state central Progressive committee, and the party's national committeeman. Speeches were made by several of the Progressives, followed by a resolution, a platform, being a draft of the Chicago platform of the party, was adopted and another passed taken up at 10 o'clock tonight to permit the delegates to attend a mass meeting of Progressives held at the convention hall at which speeches were made by former Governor Otero, former Attorney General George W. Prichard, Congressman George W. Curry and others. The mention of Roosevelt's name caused a demonstration among the delegates and spectators.

Capt. W. H. Gillettwater, a banker of this city and recognized as the strongest individual political force in the state, today pledged his allegiance to the Progressive party. Progressive leaders regard the conversion of Gillettwater to mean victory at the November election, since to him more than any other man was ascribed victory at the last state election for the Democratic Progressive state, judicial and legislative candidates.

At tonight's session a candidate for congress who is believed will be either former Governor Otero, State Representative John E. Ryan or Jerry Leahy of Colfax county will be nominated as well as three presidential electors.

Permanent officers of the convention were George W. Armitage, president; and W. H. Gillettwater, secretary. Both leaders of the Progressive movement.

Later tonight the convention nominated Marcus C. de Baca of Sandoval county as the party's candidate for congress, and George W. Armitage of Santa Fe county, Elmer K. Studley of Colfax county and D. E. Thomas of Chaves county as presidential electors on the Progressive ticket. De Baca is at present a member of the lower house of the state legislature and one of the best known Spanish-American lawyers in the state. The convention closed with a demonstration for the nominees.

COMMERCE DISSEMINATES NOXIOUS PLANTS

From a Consular Report.

Burns similar to those found in Australia, were recently discovered in some scattered Kent woods purchased from a Bradford and Birtwell, 10th street. English wool has been considered entirely free from objectionable vegetable matter such as burrs, the presence of which so degrades the value of wool. The explanation is believed to be that the dust from some Yorkshire combing establishment has been sold for fertilizing purposes to farmers, and having been spread upon the land the seed has germinated. A local trade journal commenting on this incident states that no greater calamity could befall the English wool trade than for English wool to become infested with burrs, rather than run such a risk by using the dust of a wool-combing establishment it would be better to burn this fertilizing material. It might be well for American farmers to take timely warning, as in our more kindly climate the risk of introduction and multiplication might prove even greater.

HER CONDITION QUITE CRITICAL

Suffered From Terrible Train of Symptoms. Thinks Fatal Outcome Was Avoided by Timely Use of Cardui.

Columbia, S. C., Sept. 10.—In a letter from this city, Miss Annie Meetez says: "I was a perfect wreck, from sickness. I had pains in my right side, weak, fainting spells, dizziness, then numb and cold feelings. At times, my feet were so swollen, I could not walk a step. I also had backache, headache, was nervous, appetite good at times, more often not, and my kidneys troubled me. A friend advised me to give Cardui, the woman's tonic, a trial. I did so, and from the very first it helped me. At the end of two months, the swelling in my feet had gone down, and I was relieved from all the pains. I continued taking Cardui, and now I do almost all my housework. I am willing for you to publish what I write, for the good of other women, for I am sure that Cardui saved me from the grave."

The symptoms described in the above letter are proof that this lady was suffering from womanly trouble, and her cure shows that she took the right medicine for her trouble, namely: Cardui, the woman's tonic.

If you suffer as she did, do as she did, take Cardui, and it will surely do for you what it did for her. Why not?

7 VOTE IN STATE

fusing. Candidates for two United States senators, four congressmen, and complete state and county tickets will go on the Democratic and Republican ballots at the November election as a result of the action of the voters today.

In a few cases candidates are unopposed but in the main, there are two, three, and as many as six, seeking the endorsement of their party for a single office.

TELLER COUNTY VOTE

NOT MORE THAN 2,500

SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.
CHICHESTER, Sept. 10.—The vote at the primaries today was exceedingly light and the entire vote of the county will not exceed 2,500. Interest centered in the fight in the Democratic primaries between Henry Von Phil and James T. Stewart, both former occupants of the sheriff's office and candidates for re-nomination, and between the third and first districts for county commissioners. Osborne Colchester and J. Gorman, of Victor, are contesting the re-nomination of William Turner of Woodland Park and Peter McDonald of Victor, the incumbents.

The Republicans had but one nominee for each office. They made no attempt to turn out, and it is conservatively estimated that not more than 400 Republicans voted in the county. Deputy District Attorney Guy P. Nevitt, Democrat, advised through the press this morning that, "Your vote at the primary cannot bind you in any way for the fall election, November 6." At midnight returns from the outside precincts were all lacking and only one-half of the city precincts had been heard from. Von Phil appears to be leading Stewart for sheriff. McDonald, the commissioner from the third district, has a small majority and Turner of Woodland Park has a slight lead over Colchester of Victor.

The returns will not be complete until late tomorrow as the news from the outside precincts will be slow coming in.

PUEBLO, Sept. 10.—Two precincts out of 66 gave Parks, Republican, 23; Stewart, Progressive, Republican, 29. Vincent and Dawson appear to be running about even. Democratic ballots have not been counted. Vote in the county is extremely light and returns throughout the Arkansas valley, are very slow in coming in. The Republicans voted one fourth their strength while the Democratic vote was one-third its strength.

TRINIDAD, Sept. 10.—Three precincts out of a total of 49 in Las Animas county, gave:

ELECTORS ARE PLEDGED TO SUPPORT ROOSEVELT

JEFFERSON CITY, Mo., Sept. 10.—That eight of the 18 presidential electors nominated by the Republican state convention in St. Louis, April 23, have signed an agreement practically pledging themselves to support Roosevelt is announced in the November election. The agreement was made at a meeting held at the Republican state convention at the conclusion of the party. It is reported that the Republican

ENORMOUS PROFITS BY THE UTAH COPPER CO.

The total net profits of the Utah Copper company for the second quarter of the year were $2,522,685.75, of which $1,151,347.50 was paid out in dividends, according to the report of President Charles M. Jackson of this city and General Manager D. C. Jackling.

The total ore handled by the company during the quarter was 28,372,058 pounds, and the gross production for the preceding quarter was 24,923,550 pounds.

The Magna plant and nine of the 13 sections of the Arthur plant were in operation throughout April, but their tonnage was greatly reduced by reason of the numerous snow storms, causing delays in the coarse crushing department on account of wet ore. During May both plants operated at full capacity, but in June the tonnage of the Arthur plant was reduced because of the installation of some heavier machinery.

The operations of the Bingham and Garfield railway during the quarter were satisfactory in every way. An average of 10,203 tons of ore a day were hauled from the mines to the mills for the period. Other freight business and passenger train business also increased substantially.

MINISTERS ARE AGAINST CATCHPENNY FEATURES

The following resolution has been passed by the Colorado Springs Ministerial alliance:

Resolved, That the Ministerial alliance, while appreciating to the fullest extent the general and wholesome features of the carnival celebration recently held in our city, yet do most heartily express our condemnation of the gambling and catchpenny features that were admitted as a part of the celebration as subversive of moral life of our city, and strongly insist that should another such celebration be held the reputation of our city demands an exclusion of such questionable features.

LAYING WATER SYSTEM FOR THE STRATTON HOME

The work of laying the extensive water system of the Myron Stratton home has been started, and is being rushed in order that work on the few buildings that are erected this fall may be commenced. The water system is being installed by the Stratton estate, and the work is being supervised by E. C. Van Dusen, who drew the plans some time ago.

The system contains 12,000 feet of large main pipe and hundreds of feet of laterals. The water for the system will be taken from the main line of the Broadmoor system just above the lake at Broadmoor estate, and the new main will about double the pressure in the Broadmoor system.

Plans for the arrangement of the buildings were taken up at the board meeting yesterday. Architect M. R. Hinkle showed a plan of the buildings and view of the grounds as they will appear when completed. No action was taken on the matter.

Within the next few weeks work on the several buildings to be constructed this year will be commenced. The first will be two buildings for boys and girls, each to accommodate about 25. They will be two stories in height, and will be modern throughout. There also will be several cottages of three or four rooms for older persons.

The administration buildings, the auditorium and various other of the larger buildings will not be erected for some time yet.

ADVERTISE FOR BIDS FOR NEW DORMITORY

The dormitory is to cost $55,000 and will accommodate 40 persons. The bids will be opened October 4, and the contract will be let and work begun soon afterward. The dormitory will be placed near the main street boundary of the Institute grounds facing to the south.

HOPES TO BEGIN WORK ON GYMNASIUM THIS FALL

"I hope to have work on the new gymnasium begun this fall," said President William F. Shoen of Colorado college yesterday afternoon. "The plans are all under way, and the $100,000 already pledged at the time of commencement last May and June have been more pledges which I am not at all liberty to divulge."

The $100,000 sought for a new gymnasium at Colorado college is part of a fund of $300,000 which is now being raised. The fund was started when $50,000 was promised to the local institution on condition that $250,000 more be raised. The condition of the gift stated that $100,000 of the money could go for buildings. The $50,000 amount has been pledged last June in addition to the original $50,000.

President and Mrs. Shoen spent most of the summer in Germany, returning to this city yesterday morning. Mrs. Shoen and Miss Brown have had charge of the registration, and say that it seems better than in former years, although they are unable to give exact figures at present. All indications point to a healthy growth in the number of students.

The first classes for the year will be held at 8 o'clock this morning. The joint Y. M. C. A. and Y. W. C. A. reception will be given in Hedges hall Friday night, and the Y. M. C. A. state reception in Hedges hall Saturday night.

The first football practice of the year was held yesterday afternoon, 15 men appearing on the field for work. This is encouraging, as in many former years it was hard to get many more than this at any time. The full squad will number at least 40 or 50. This year's freshman class is exceptionally strong in athletes.

THE BIG DAY TODAY

The young and old alike, this is really the red-letter day of the calendar, because if you happen to be around the railroad track this morning you will see three big trains of cars pull into the siding, and they will be loaded by the guards with barrels of happiness of every kind and description known to the humanity of man.

The coming of such an important attraction as the Sells Photo Circus is always an event, because, somehow or other, the lure of lines and spandrels never comes. It rehabilitates old age and fills you with the glory of living. It is the most ancient form of amusement known to mankind, and will in all probability, be pursuing the even tenor of its way when other devices for interesting the public at large will have passed into history.

Now, of course, the Sells Photo Circus gives a parade. The beautiful gray horses hitched to the red wagons will come down the street this morning branding and currying, the pretty ladies driving tandems, and the clowns cracking jokes and fine bands, discharging everything from grand opera to ragtime, and the herd of elephants, the baby hippopotamus in its cage, and the lions and tigers, followed by the elephants, the slugs of the desert. Last but not least, there will be a college player who is guaranteed by the press agent to smash up all rainbows across the street and to tear whole bunches out of the atmosphere.

Some performers will be given today, a portion of the afternoon at 2 o'clock, and another entertainment at 4 o'clock tonight.

Two great stunts were added at last to the show, which has always been distinguished for being universally satisfactory. There will be a horse making a balloon ascension, the Rhoda royal troupe of high school horses, the Galaxie sisters, Miss Emma Stecker, greatest horseback equestrienne, the Holsons, Effie Dutton, queen of the arena, elephants racing with horses, at closing, schooled hunters in wonderful high jumping feats, high wire acts, marvellous conjures of a variety and, in fact, everything that will make the performance a little better than the standard being set by the best of the biggest grand organizations touring the country.

The regular ticket program will be opened on the grounds at 2 o'clock in the morning, so that everyone, that does not care to be tucked up in the rush and pressure of the day, may purchase in advance.

The system of low prices still prevails. The management announces that it will admit patrons to the circus in the morning.

HEY, THERE, YOU NEWSBOYS!

Stop a bit. Here's something that's easier than finding it. It's a whole new, a big show, the best on earth, and handed to you FREE.

Now, will you be good? Here's the proposition. Listen! THE DERN POST and the Sells Photo Circus have conspired together and arranged a great treat for you. They're going to pull off their regular high-performance of course, but this time it's all for you.

That's right. No push. Of course, others may come, will come, but you are to have the best seats, the reserved seats, and as many of them as you can get. What do you know about that? Grab your copies and figure out whether you can go and carry little sister. You can come right along, and bring your little sister, too, if she's this papers, for this big treat is for the "newsies" only.

SPANISH OIL PRODUCTION

from the San Francisco Chronicle.

While Antares is the principal oil-producing section of Sicily, most of the transactions in this trade are effected in Palermo and Tarazona. The produce of Tarazona, the last as yet unimportant oil center, had the distinction of Tarazona in Palermo province, is the greatest single oil district in the production of oil. In the latter district, with a normal crop of olives, the average amount of oil obtained is 2,000,000 pounds, all of which the quality and packing in value between $200,000 to $300,000. The Tarazona district is divided into a great number of small parcels of land, owned by individual farmers, each of whom naturally regards his own production as pertaining to all the trade. There are no oil farmers in this district, most of the growers possessing only or more than two thousand presses, which they extend to others from the proceeds of their presses. Others own about 2,000 of these presses, and run in Palermo. The growers are unable to purchase machinery, and are obliged of their children. There are no processors of oil in this district, the growers rather sell or exchange the proceeds of their presses for the proceeds of other presses, and the proceeds are sold to the oil processors, who are situated in Palermo. The growers of oil in Palermo are not so well situated as those in Sicily, and the proceeds of their presses are sold to the oil processors, who are situated in Palermo. The growers of oil in Palermo are not so well situated as those in Sicily, and the proceeds of their presses are sold to the oil processors, who are situated in Palermo.

INTERESTING FIGURES CONCERNING MENINGITIS

From the Journal of the American Medical Association
Notwithstanding the efforts of Shreveport, La., to keep out meningitis by establishing quarantine against any cases of Texas where a considerable epidemic of the disease occurred during the winter and spring. A number of cases occurred in that city and vicinity. Some interesting figures have been prepared by the city health officer concerning the disease. Since December 4, 1911, 111 cases originated in the city and 19 were imported, making the total number treated 130. Exclusive of imported cases 66 patients erles and 38 deaths making the percentage 44.7. Among the males and 44 females. Among the cases in the city there were 69 recoveries, a percentage of recoveries 65. Of the whites 23 recovered, a percentage of 55. The disease occurred most frequently among negroes between the ages of 1 and 29. The greater number of cases and higher percentage of deaths among the colored population are probably nomic and hygienic conditions. The percentage of "deaths" at Sharpsport is a little better than the average in the Texas epidemic, the deaths in the latter state being between 40 and 60 per cent. In the city in Texas where most cases occurred, the mortality in the city hospital, under the serum treatment, was 21 per cent, while among those treated outside the hospital with and without the serum it was 60 per cent. In 1915-16, however, the death rate reached 80 per cent. The showing in favor of the hospital treatment combined with the serum is remarkably good, as compared with the ordinary management of these cases. But the death rate for the disease is considered the striking feature.

tion of the health authorities, but the use of the vaccine is still being made, and the disease is still one of the most fatal epidemic diseases.

Six high-class acts will be seen next week.

All head liners Colorado Springs is hungry for first-class vaudeville.

Good music will predominate, both on the stage and in the pit.

One of the biggest trick shooting acts on the American stage will be seen on the bill, Myrtle Brann and company, who will close in St. Louis this week on Saturday evening and open in Colorado Springs Monday. Their act has been over the S. and C. circuit for the last two years.

No moving pictures will be offered as the management expects to put all expense on six complete acts.

This bill can not help but be the most popular amusement offered in this city in many months.

As Sullivan & Conidine advertise in their offices throughout the country, "We welcome everybody's guest."

THE ANIMATED WEEKLY

A word to our readers about the great feature of the Universal company, the Animated Weekly presented each Wednesday at The Majestic. This feature presents the news of the preceding week in motion pictures just as they occur. Any event of national or international importance is pictured. It requires an immense amount of labor and skill to accomplish this, for it can readily be seen that camera men must be in the field everywhere, ready at a moment's notice to travel from a given point by rail, boat or any other method of locomotion to reach the point where their services are required at the moment.

These animated subjects are not only events taken in America, but also in Europe, and you can readily see the expense and labor attached in the making and presenting of some of your approval.

This is not the only feature for today. There are four others, notably an "Imp" masterpiece, entitled "The Big Hearted Sim." It's a wholesome story told in a masterful way, and we feel sure it will please. Then there's a "Champion" title, "What a Woman," which does not convey the beauty of the story told in the picture.

And, well, you know, but there are two more that make up an hour and a half's entertainment unexcelled anywhere in the city. Good music is featured at all times as you know, and the price so small that you can afford to come.
